Can you introduce yourself briefly to our readers?

Hello, I'm Bhavini Bhargava, a 21-year-old with a deep passion for cricket and a thirst for adventure. I've been actively involved in sports from a young age, competing at the national level in both cricket and badminton. Beyond sports, I've ventured into the literary world as the author of "Unheard," a poetry book that has garnered international acclaim as an Amazon bestseller. Currently, I'm pursuing a Bachelor's degree in sports management at Deakin University in Australia, supported by a prestigious Vice Chancellors' scholarship in collaboration with Rajasthan Royals.

BHAVINI BHARGAVA

What inspired you to pursue a career in sports management, and how do you balance it with your active sports career?

My passion for sports ignited my interest in sports management. I've always been fascinated by the organizational aspects of sports and wanted to contribute to the industry beyond my playing career. Balancing academics with my active sports pursuits comes naturally as they complement each other. Managing time effectively and staying disciplined are key to juggling both commitments successfully.

Career

What motivated you to write your poetry book 'Unheard,' and how did it become an Amazon international bestseller?

'Unheard' is a collection of poems that emerged from my personal journey through adolescence, a period marked by emotional upheaval and introspection. Initially, these poems served as a private outlet for expressing my deepest thoughts and feelings. However, encouraged by friends and family, I decided to share them with the world. The book's unexpected success as an Amazon bestseller was humbling and reaffirmed the universal resonance of its themes.

How does your experience as an athlete influence your writing, particularly in 'Unheard,' which explores the emotional challenges of a teenager's life?

As an athlete, I've learned the values of discipline, perseverance, and resilience—qualities that deeply influence my writing. 'Unheard' delves into the emotional complexities and vulnerabilities of teenage life, drawing parallels between the highs and lows of sports and personal growth. The book reflects my journey as an athlete and resonates with readers who appreciate its raw honesty and emotional depth.

“ From

Having excelled in both badminton and cricket at the national level, how do you manage training for both sports?

My journey began with badminton at the tender age of 8, progressing to compete at the national level for Rajasthan until an unfortunate series of foot injuries prompted me to transition to cricket. As a right-handed batter in cricket, I've dedicated myself to training rigorously in both sports. Today, in Australia, I continue to actively participate in competitive cricket and badminton, balancing training schedules and competitions with my academic pursuits. I reckon the key to manage all these things simultaneously has always been my mentality of prioritizing discipline and consistency over motivation.

What challenges have you faced as a female athlete in both India and Australia, and how have you overcome them?

Being a female athlete has presented its share of challenges, including societal stereotypes, lack of recognition, and fewer opportunities compared to male counterparts. These challenges were particularly evident during my transition to Australia, where I had to rebuild my career and network from scratch. Overcoming these obstacles required resilience, determination, and unwavering focus on my goals.

How did it feel to receive the best poet award in Dubai and to be featured in Filmfare magazine's Middle-East edition?

Receiving the best poet award in Dubai and being featured in Filmfare Middle East were surreal and gratifying experiences. They not only validated my creative endeavors but also provided a platform to reach a wider audience. The recognition reaffirmed the power of storytelling through poetry and motivated me to continue exploring and expressing my experiences through writing.

What advice would you give to young athletes interested in pursuing academic and artistic endeavors alongside sports?

My advice to young athletes is to embrace their passions wholeheartedly. Pursue academic and artistic interests alongside sports, as each endeavor contributes to personal growth and holistic development. Set clear goals, manage time effectively, and cultivate a support network of mentors and peers who inspire and encourage you to excel in all aspects of life.

Can you mention a few of your major achievements?

I take pride in representing team Rajasthan at the national level in both cricket and badminton, showcasing my dedication and skills in sports. 'Unheard,' my debut poetry collection, achieved international recognition as an Amazon bestseller, resonating with readers worldwide. I've been honored with the best author award in Dubai for my contributions to poetry and featured in Filmfare Middle East, further amplifying the reach and impact of my work. Currently, I'm pursuing a full scholarship for sports management at Deakin University, where I also serve as a sports ambassador, promoting the value of sports in education and community engagement.

Can you share with us how you first got into modeling and what inspired you to pursue this career?

I began my modeling career because I was inspired by the confidence and elegance of models walking the runway in designer clothes. Watching them command the stage with such poise motivated me to pursue modeling and work hard to achieve success in the industry.

What were some of the biggest challenges you faced when starting out as a model, and how did you overcome them?

Rejections were the most biggest challenges for me in the life also those rejections I never took as discouraging or demotivating as I always took it direction I need to work hard for this, I wanted to know and explore myself were I stand in this competition and what different I can do than others. And as model, I faced several challenges in my career. These included maintaining physical and mental health under the pressure of industry standards, handling rejection and criticism, managing a hectic and often unpredictable schedule, and dealing with the competitiveness of the industry. Additionally, navigating the business aspects of modeling, such as contracts and negotiations, also presented significant challenges. For overcome I started doing gym, making auditions videos, trying out new languages, scripts, dialogue delivery practice also what different I can act or show expressions. Making reels on any particular dialogue etc.

Could you tell us about a particular photoshoot or runway show that you consider a milestone in your modeling career?

Well I did photoshoots with very well known and talented photographers just like Mr. Radhakrishnan Chakayath, Hemit Modha. Also I never did any runway show because I never got fit into runway criteria. My height is 5'6 and its criteria for height is 5'9 5'12 for girls. Also I regret losing this opportunity. Definitely if ever I got the opportunity for runway shows I will not miss it! Will do my best.

How do you prepare yourself mentally and physically for a major modeling event or photoshoot?

Well I prepare myself mentally and physically for modeling or photoshoot like I do meditation I love listening to music and dance, or I keep reading something nice which will make my day also before going for shoot I cook my favourite things. So in mid of shoots I only consume coffee or fruits. Also the best thing is you can do is you can listen to calm music or anything like your favourite playlist. And photoshoot is something I honestly love and enjoy I play music whether I am shooting at home or studio my favourite playlist is on and I try to make different poses which will give photographer a best picture and next day I'll be in some international magazine. I always try to give best in every photoshoot or any modeling event. I do things from the heart. Rather getting frustrated rather using mind I use my heart to make that things a better.

Are there any specific goals you are aiming to achieve in your modeling career in the next few years?

Yes, definitely I want to be a successful actress in my life. I aspire to become a successful actress and create meaningful, impactful films that leave a lasting impression on people's hearts, ensuring that I am remembered for the positive mark I left on their lives.

What has been your most significant achievement in modeling so far, and what did it mean to you?

My significant achievement for me was getting selected for multiple shoots at a time. In a day I used to do 6-7 shoots at a time. And getting selected from 30-40 models is a tough and rewarding opportunity I see. There are lot of people in a cue who is waiting for to get select. I am competition with myself I never seen myself comparing with anybody. I want to make a better version of myself and I am trying it each and everyday. Making better revolutions for myself everyday. I want to see myself successful.

How do you stay motivated and continue to grow in such a competitive industry?

Staying motivated is used to be hard in the beginning now I just feel like without any complaint or argument I will work hard on each and everything. So I started keeping my goals clear, maintaining healthy lifestyle, building strong network, keep myself focused and keep learning new things, celebrating small wins most important was staying professional and positive, making strong portfolio I used to take every type of shoots like food blogging travelling being a model I just not only explored things related to fashion but tried to put fashion in my other shoots as well. If I am shooting for some maharashtrian restaurant I am wearing marathi saree. I keep trying new and different things that makes sense, and you feel good when you apply your own knowledge and creativity to something.

Can you give us a sneak peek into any upcoming projects or collaborations you are excited about?

Yes definitely you'll watch me in 2 big films one is by dharmatic productions and another is with Nitesh Tiwari.

How do you balance your professional modeling career with personal life and other interests?

By doing proper time management, prioritising self care routine , setting boundaries for myself ,staying connected with close friends and family and Staying mindful. I follow proper self care routine to stay healthy and happy.

What advice would you give to aspiring models who are just starting their journey in the industry?

Advice from my side for aspiring models would be that never judge your capabilities and potential, you don't know what spark is within yourself you just need to recognise it he spark within yourself and know how to ignite it. Once that spark is ignited nobody will stop you to reach to the greater heights. Knowing yourself is very important and powerful you've to explore yourself and know your capabilities.

This Independence Day, the Hindi box office is set to witness a fierce competition with three major releases: *Stree 2* starring Shraddha Kapoor, *Vedaa* featuring John Abraham, and Akshay Kumar's *Khel Khel Mein*. However, with the advance bookings now open, it appears that *Stree 2* is emerging as the clear frontrunner, leaving its competitors far behind.

In a remarkable achievement, *Stree 2* has already surpassed its predecessor's records. The original *Stree*, released in 2018, had an impressive opening day collection of Rs 6.82 crore and eventually grossed nearly Rs 130 crore during its theatrical run. In contrast, *Stree 2* has already exceeded these figures through advance bookings alone. According to Sacnilk, the horror-comedy sequel has sold over 2.21 lakh tickets, generating Rs 6.87 crore, and with two days remaining before its release, it is expected to easily surpass the Rs 10 crore mark.

The Maharashtra and Delhi circuits have been leading the charge in advance bookings, contributing Rs 1.87 crore and Rs 1.83 crore, respectively. *Stree 2* sees the return of the original cast, including Rajkummar Rao, Aparshakti Khurrana, Pankaj Tripathi, and Abhishek Banerjee, with a potential cameo by Akshay Kumar.

*Stree 2* is part of Dinesh Vijan's expanding horror-comedy universe, which also includes *Bhediya* starring Varun Dhawan and Kriti Sanon, as well as the upcoming *Munjya* featuring Abhay Verma, Mona Singh, and Sharvari. The universe is set to grow even further with a vampire-themed installment starring Ayushmann Khurrana and Rashmika Mandanna.
